

Trends in Online Learning

2001:

An estimated 40,000-50,000 students enrolled in a virtual school course.

2002:

There are 88 virtual schools in the U.S.

An estimated 178,500 students enrolled in those 88 virtual schools.

2003:

This year, 378,000 students are expected to enroll.

2004:

More than one million students will probably take classes online.

Last year, an estimated 1,785 teachers taught online.

This year, 2,531 teachers are expected to teach online.

By 2004-05, 4,712 teachers will probably teach online.

Source: The Peak Group's Virtual Schools Across America: Trends in K-12 Online Education, 2002.